Transactions by Banned Institutions in GTB

†2118. SHRI RAVI SHANKAR PRASAD:
DR. MURLI MANOHAR JOSHI:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that those organisations had been granted permission to transact in Global Trust Bank shares which were put under ban during the last few years;

(b) if so, the facts in this regard;

(c) the names of banned organisations which transacted in Global Trust Bank shares togetherwith the amount involved therein, and

(d) whether Government have identified the offenders who are responsible for the said incident and if so, the names thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI S S PALANIMANICKAM) (a) and (b) Securities & Exchange Board of India (SEBI) has informed that on December 31, 2002 an exparte ad-interim order was passed by SEBI against the promoters of GTB and others (numbering in all 50 entities) debarring them from dealing in only securities of GTB till investigation was complete.

A post decisional hearing was given to the said 50 entities during February 2003 On June 13, 2003, order confirming the exparte interim order was passed against Ramesh Gelli, the promoter and his group entities and subsequently final order was passed against the promoter group entities of Global Trust Bank on March 23, 2004 debarring them from dealing in the script of GTB for a period of 18 months with effect from the date of interim order, i.e., December 31, 2002

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi

The promoter group entities filed an appeal before Securities Appellate Tribunal on April 19, 2004 and the tribunal stayed the order of SEBI for four weeks vide order dated May 05, 2004 SEBI preferred an appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the Hon'ble Supreme Court was pleased to stay the order passed by the tribunal Thus prohibition order ran its course upto June 30, 2004.

Vide order dated June 06, 2003, interim order dated December 31, 2002, was reconfirmed against Ketan Parekh entities. On December 21, 2003, an order was passed debarring Ketan Parekh entities from securities market for a period of 14 years.

In the meanwhile, some of the entities, i e , Ashok Mittal, Ashok Mittal & Co., Claridges investments, Far East Investments and European Investments preferred an appeal before the Securities Appellate Tribunal seeking to set aside the exparte ad-interim order passed on December 31, 2002. As the case was coming up for hearing before SAT on June 14, 2004, keeping in view that SAT would have passed strictures against SEBI as decision on promoters had already been taken earlier and SEBI did not have sufficient ground enough to continue the prohibition, order dated June 12, 2004 was passed directing that the interim order dated December 31, 2002 would cease against the following entities:

1 20th Century Securities Ltd.

2. Ashok Mittal

3 Ashok Mittal & Co.

4. Brentfield Holdings Ltd

5. Claridges Investment & Finance Pvt. Ltd
